Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Woodfield Center/Bethesda Children's Home in Beresford, South Dakota, has continuously served children in need from throughout the state of South Dakota and the surrounding region since 1896; and,

WHEREAS, Woodfield Center, a program of Lutheran Social Services of South Dakota, offers troubled children the opportunity to successfully re-enter family life and become contributing members of our society; and,

WHEREAS, Woodfield Center has successfully completed two new cottages to expand and enhance this service; and,

WHEREAS, This expansion, financed by donors from throughout the state of South Dakota, continues the long tradition of giving and service to others, which is part of the South Dakota Centennial Spirit; and,

WHEREAS, These cottages are to be dedicated on July 28, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this special occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 28, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I congratulate all the many South Dakotans who have made this dedication day possible.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
